

The Object of the Australian Market & Social Research Society (T/A The Research Society)

as stated in the Constitution, Part Two, Item 3

The object of the Society is to advance the market and social research profession in Australia by:

- (a) providing education and member services;
- (b) setting and promoting high professional standards; and
- (c) communicating and engaging with stakeholders and the wider community.